

First Nations Health Authority
Health through wellness

How To Get Your BC Vaccine Card

The BC Vaccine Card is a digital or printed document that shows proof of vaccination for access to non-essential businesses and events. The system has been in place since Sept. 13, 2021 and requires people to provide proof of having at both doses of a COVID-19 mRNA vaccine. You are considered fully vaccinated if you received on dose of a Johnson and Johnson (Janssen) vaccine.

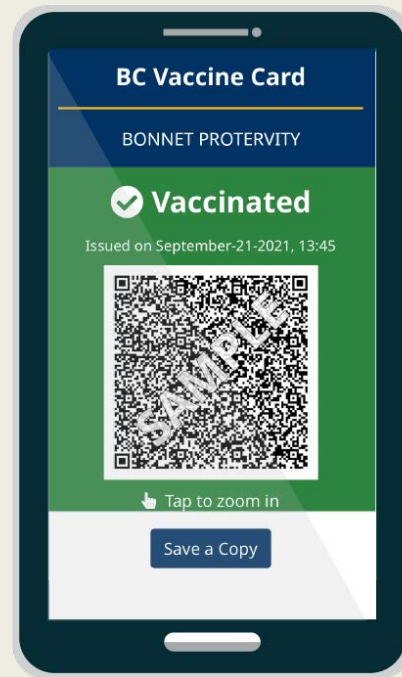

DIGITAL OPTIONS:

- Visit gov.bc.ca/vaccinecard. Enter your Personal Health Number, date of birth, and date of vaccinations.
- Save your registration to your mobile device or print it out.
- Use your phone or printed proof of vaccination when visiting social and recreational venues.

PRINT OPTIONS:

- If you lack a computer or mobile device, you can ask a friend or family member to assist you in printing out your BC Vaccine Card.
- You can also call the Provincial Vaccine Line at 1-833-838-2323 to have your printed card mailed to you.
- Visit one of the 64 Service BC Centres who can print your card

You may also access your BC Vaccine Card through the Health Gateway portal: healthgateway.gov.bc.ca

HOW TO USE YOUR BC VACCINE CARD

When you arrive at a venue that requires proof of vaccination, have your digital or printed BC Vaccine Card ready. You will be asked to display your card, along with a piece of valid government photo ID. Youth under 12 are not required to show ID.

Families and caregivers can carry a copy of their loved one's BC Vaccine Card with them, or save multiple vaccine cards to their mobile device.

Businesses will have two options to verify your BC Vaccine Card:

- Scan the QR code with an app from app store (Google, Apple)
- Visually verify your information